Landscape:
• Outline and maintain the buffer of the Hall Creek to
oriental species.
• Expand the riparian zone with native species.
• Develop a site-specific management strategy for invasive species.

Accessibility:
• Locate and maintain a continuous path for access to hall Creek.
• Outline and maintain the buffer of the Hall Creek to
oriental species.
• Expand the riparian zone with native species.
• Develop a site-specific management strategy for invasive species.

Employment:
• Develop new employment opportunities for local residents.
• Establish partnerships with local businesses.

Signage:
• Improve signs and interpretive displays throughout the site.
• Develop an interpretive trail.
• Provide interpretive materials in multiple languages.

Documentation:
• Prepare a Phase 1A Report for areas of new construction.
• Site and engineer new construction in a location that is least impactful to the archaeological record.
• Update the Cultural Landscape Report.
• Prepare Historic Furnishing Plans.
• Expand collections and exhibits based on current Collections Policy and exhibit space.
• Develop relationships with partners to gain access to existing collections.
• Enhance public access to Site records and collections.
• Monitor climate and environmental controls for collections storage.
• Update National Register and National Historic Landmark documentation.

Community and Partnerships:
• Enhance the partnership with the Friends of Johnson Hall.
• Develop partnerships with the area Chamber of Commerce and other business agencies to promote Site-specific and regional tourism.
• Enhance partnerships with local colleges and universities.
• Encourage collaboration and thematic connections with other Regional historic sites.
• Continue to offer opportunities for stakeholders and public input regarding site programming.
• Enhance the Site’s social media presence.
• Explore fundraising partnerships.