

CALL TO PHOTOGRAPHERS

The Art Gallery at the Rockefeller State Park Preserve welcomes photographers to enter their imagery in the forthcoming annual exhibition

“SNAP! COLORS, PATTERNS, AND TEXTURES”

January 12th – March 31st, 2019

What colors, patterns, and textures inspire you?

We will accept up to five images from each photographer, (theme: colors, patterns, and textures), taken within the boundaries of the Preserve, including the Rockwood Hall area, Pocantico Hills and Stone Barns Farms.

Curated by Audrey Leeds Graphics by Laurence Gill

Applications are available at the Preserve Office or online at:

www.friendsrock.org
www.nysparks.com/parks/59

Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation

IMPORTANT DATES

- The committee looks forward to your submissions and applications by November 26th.
- We will notify you of our selections the week of December 10th.
- Accepted images should be printed, framed and delivered by January 7th by 3:30^{PM}.
- There will be two artists' receptions, taking place on Sunday, January 20th, from 1-3^{PM} and Sunday, March 24th from 1-3^{PM}.
- Exhibit ends March 31st.