Frequently asked questions

New York State Adventure License Program

Who is eligible for the Adventure License boating icon? Anyone successfully completing the New York Safe Boating Course may opt to have their driver's license, non-driver ID, or learner's permit indicate completion of the course

I have a NYC ID; can I have the boating icon put on that ID? No, the icon can only be placed on licenses and ID's issued by the NYS DMV.

Do I need to notify DMV before they renew my license or ID? No. DMV will maintain a record of your having completed the boating safety course, and automatically place the icon on your license each time it is renewed.

I have a U.S. Coast Guard License; Can that be listed on the Adventure License? No, only boating safety certificates can be listed.

What happens if I move out of state? If you move out of state you must relinquish your NY Driver license and apply for a driver's license in their new state. In order to maintain the Adventure License status you will need to apply for a NY Non-Driver ID which will include that designation and maintain it continuously.

I have a lifetime fishing and hunting license and a boating safety certificate. Can I put all three on my driver's license? Yes you may.

I live in NY but I have an out of state boating safety certificate, do I qualify for the Adventure License program? No, you must have a New York safe boating certificate to be eligible.

I got my boating safety certificate online and tried to get the Adventure License through my provider but I when I click on the link it brings me back to a NYS information page. What do I have to do?

Click on the provider that you used and follow the direction on the document that pops up.

Fees

There are two different options to consider when asking for your boating safety certificate to be attached to your DMV license or ID; Opt In Now or Opt In Later.

If you Opt-In Now, you want to receive a new DMV issued document, you will be charged a new document fee. If you Opt-In Later, you choose to wait for your next renewal, you do not pay a fee.

Opt-In Now driver license or Learner's permit $12.50.

Opt-In Now non driver ID $5.00.

I paid my fee and I have not received my new license/permit/ID yet. Who do I call? You can check on the mailing status with DMV.

I had my fishing and hunting license put on my license. Why do I have to pay an additional fee to get my boating safety certificate on my license? Whenever DMV prints a document for a customer, the customer has to pay for it. NYS Parks has no control over this fee.

How can I get all my recreational licenses and boating safety certificate on my driver's license for only one fee? Figure out what sporting licenses you want to be indicated on your driver's license and Opt-In Later to have them apply at your next renewal. Next, wait a few days and Opt-In now for your boating safety certificate and you will receive all icons at the same time.
